OBJECT OF THIS DIRECTORY.

THE object of this Directory is, not merely, nor chiefly, to inform the public in regard to the number and names of those who are members of the Central Presbyterian Church, but it is especially to furnish to the members themselves, the means of knowing one another, and to facilitate that interchange of social amenities and that Christian intercourse with each other, which are so desirable and important among those who are accustomed to worship in the same sanctuary. They ought to know and have fellowship with one another, as belonging to the same particular "Household of Faith," and this knowledge and fellowship should extend, not only to each other's persons, but also to their respective homes and conditions in life. The tendency in a city like ours is that Christians become lost to each other in the crowd of population, and by frequent removals. To provide, as far as possible, against this tendency, and to promote brotherly love and intercourse among those who observe the same rites of worship in a common assembly, is the object which we wish to accomplish by this catalogue of names and residences. With the aid here afforded, it is brought within the power of each one and all of our communicants to make the acquaintance one of another, by imitating the example of the primitive Christians in going "from house to house," in the discharge of offices of kindness and love. This is a growing want in our several churches.

TO ATTAIN THIS OBJECT

We ask that each member avail himself and herself of the means here afforded of making the personal acquaintance of every other member, as far as practicable, by calling upon them in their respective homes, and becoming acquainted with them in their several families, recognizing each other as one in the Lord, having kindred affections, sympathies, and interests.

CHURCH SOCIALS

Are held once every month, to which every member of the Church and congregation are cordially invited. The time and place of these Socials are announced from the pulpit one or two Sabbaths preceding their occurrence, and thus a convenient opportunity is afforded for meeting each other, on the principles of that social purity which the Gospel religion inculcates.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES, &c.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES are held in the Church every Sabbath morning, at 10½ o'clock, and every Sabbath evening at times, varying from 7½ to 8 o'clock, according to the season of the year. Strangers are always welcome, and are cordially invited to attend these services. Others will provide them with comfortable sittings. Those who desire to worship steadily with us can have regular sittings assigned them at any time, by applying to either of the Committee on letting seats, who are Messrs. Henry D. Gould, Wm. H. Baldwin, and Albert O. Hendley.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL meets every Sabbath, at 2½ o'clock P. M. There are several adult Bible classes in it.

THE LORD'S SUPPER is administered in the morning of the second Sabbath of March, June, September, and December. Preparatory service is held on the afternoon at 3 o'clock of Friday before each communion Sabbath.

THE BAPTISM OF CHILDREN is administered on the Friday of Preparatory Service, or on the afternoon of the Sabbath of the Communion, in connection with a united meeting of the Church and Sabbath School, or at other times, as Providence may direct.

A CHURCH PRAYER MEETING is held every Tuesday evening, and a YOUNG PEOPLE'S PRAYER MEETING every Friday evening, commencing at the usual hours of evening service.

THE SESSION meets once a month. Application for church membership, whether by certificate or profession of faith, may be made at any time, through the pastor or any member of the Session, and we earnestly advise that no delay should be practiced in regard to this matter, when once the mind is made up to "come along with us." The door of the church is always open to receive those who would be followers of Christ.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS TO THE CHURCH.

A member removing from one congregation to another is received into the communion of the Church to which he comes, on presenting a letter of dismission and recommendation from the Church he has left. By a provision of our Book of Discipline, however, Chap. XI., Sec. 2, a certificate is not valid, if more than one year old, unless there has been no opportunity of presenting it to any Church at an earlier date. Members are also received from other evangelical denominations on similar conditions.

With regard to the admission of other persons to the "sacring ordinances," our Directory of Worship, Chap. IX., clearly distinguishes between those "born within the pale of the visible church, and dedicated to God in baptism," and unbaptized persons. This distinction is not always practically observed by churches in the manner of their admission of baptized and unbaptized persons, upon public profession of their faith in Christ, except that the rite of baptism is administered upon the latter and not on the former. In the following formula of ceremony—the substance of which we observe—there is a recognition of this distinction, the propriety of which is commended by our teachings upon the subject. We present the formula for the benefit of our members, and of those who may, at any time, propose to enter into our particular fellowship as a Church.

THE FORM OF ADMISSION.

(First, unbaptized persons, whom the Session has admitted into church membership, are requested by the pastor to present themselves before the pulpit, when he addresses them as follows:

You appear in this public manner before God, to dedicate yourselves to his service, and to unite with his visible people. And we trust that you have been renewed by the Holy Spirit, and are prepared to make profession of your faith, and to enter into covenant not to be revoked, to receive the Father, Son and Holy Ghost as your God, and to walk in all the commandments of the Lord.

Our system of doctrine is set forth in the CONFESSION OF FAITH of the Presbyterian Church, to a brief summary of which you will now please give your assent.

You believe there is but one living and true God; infinite, eternal, and unchangeable in his being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness and truth,—the Creator, Preserver, and Governor of all things; existing in three persons, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that these three are one God, the same in substance and equal in power and glory.

You believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the inspired Word of God, and the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

You believe that our first parents were created holy, and that they fell from this state by sinning against God, and that all mankind are under the guilt and power of sin as a consequence.

You believe that God has, in his infinite mercy, provided a way of Salvation, through the mediation and death of his Son Jesus Christ; and that Christ is verily God, and is both able and willing to save all who repent and believe in him.

You believe that, in order to participate in the benefits of Christ's death, it is necessary to trust in him alone as an all-sufficient Savior, to forsake sin, and walk in the ways of holiness to the end of life; but that mankind are naturally so averse to holiness, and so in love with sin, that none ever do turn and live, unless by the special influences of the Holy Spirit.

You believe that, at the end of the world, there will be a general resurrection of the dead, and a final judgment, when the wicked shall go away into everlasting punishment, and the righteous into life eternal.

To this summary of Christian doctrine do you cordially assent?

(Here the Sacrament of baptism is administered. After which the pastor calls forward those persons baptized in infancy, who have been received by the Session into full communion. When they have taken their places with the others, they are all addressed as follows:)

In virtue of your baptism, you severally stand in solemn covenant relation with Almighty God. It is proper, therefore, on this occasion of your assuming all the privileges and responsibilities of Christian discipleship, that you should declare your choice and purpose in this sacred act, and enter into a holy engagement with God and with this Church. Therefore, in the presence of God, of angels, and of men, you now solemnly avow Jehovah—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost,—to be your God.

You take the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be the rule of your conduct and of your faith.

You renounce the world, the flesh, and the devil, and sincerely embrace the Lord Jesus Christ as the object of your supreme love and trust.

You profess it to be the purpose of your heart to live a humble, holy, and devout life; to sanctify the Lord's day; strictly to observe secret, family, and public worship; to seek the conversion of sinners to Christ; and henceforth to devote yourselves and all that you have, without reserve, to the service of your Redeemer.

You also engage to be subject to the order and government of this Church,—to cherish a spirit of meekness and love, and to be habitually watchful over your own heart and conduct, and faithful to the souls of your brethren.

Do you thus solemnly covenant with God and his people?

Dearly beloved, the laws of God are upon you. You have laid yourselves under peculiar obligations to be devoted to his service. You have renounced the world and its vanities, and received Christ as your portion. Let these engagements be the subject of frequent meditation and prayer. Henceforth guard every avenue of temptation, and abstain from all appearance of evil. Enter with your whole heart upon works of benevolence, and labor to turn many to righteousness. Let your dependence be upon God. Pray without ceasing. Carefully observe stated seasons of secret devotion, and whatever may interpose, neglect not your closet. Be not content with ordinary attainments of piety, but grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Give diligence to make your calling and election sure; and may you be enabled to keep the covenant this day made, through the grace of him who hath said, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

(Here members received by letter are requested to rise—the others still standing—and assent to the following engagement):

Being already in covenant with God and with his people, you do now, in transferring your peculiar relations to this branch of his Church, cheerfully renew the consecration of yourselves to his service, engage to submit to the government and discipline of Christ as here administered, and promise to seek the purity, peace, and edification of this Church.

(Here the Church is requested to rise).

In consequence of these engagements, we as a Church, receive you, beloved in the Lord, into our communion, and declare you entitled to all the privileges of our Church fellowship. We welcome you to our number, and promise to watch over you, and seek your edification while you continue among us. And we ask a faithful co-operation on your part in all our labors. May our fellowship in the Gospel be sweet and profitable, and may we together "press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

"Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen."

(Here all resume their seats, and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administered.)

NOTICE

In the following list of members, there are a few whose places of residence—on account of late removals—we have temporarily lost sight of. We hope that we shall be promptly informed of their present address.

In addition to the list of members, here reported, we have upon our Roll about seventy other names of persons, who have been absent from our city for several years, some of whom we learn are living in the bounds of other Churches, in more or less remote parts of the country, without having taken letters of dismission from us, but most of whom are now unknown to us—many of them, no doubt, dead.

Church members, when they remove from one Church to another, should not fail to take their letters with them and identify themselves, at once, with the Church to which they remove. Otherwise they do not conform to good order, and they peril their spiritual interests.
